

Staffline Continues Growth Strategy with Acquisition of The Workplace

- Yorkshire based recruitment firm to boost Staffline's presence in region

Staffline, a leading provider of recruitment and outsourced HR services, is pleased to announce the acquisition of The Workplace, a Yorkshire based Recruitment Company.

The Workplace provides temporary and permanent recruitment and also supplies HR consultancy services and recruitment campaign management. The Workplace employs 14 permanent staff and enjoys a strong reputation as a being able to recruit anything "from a factory operative, single manager or even an entire factory workforce" and will be an excellent fit with the rest of the Staffline Group.

Commenting, Andy Hogarth, Staffline's Chairman and Chief Executive, said:

"This is the coming together of two great brands and is a fantastic opportunity for the business going forward. We will continue to look for similar opportunities to enhance the Group. "
